GRAND MOTHER

Used herbs in doctoring the family, and her simple remedies DID CURE in most cases. Without the use of herbs, medical science would be powerless; and yet the tendency of the times is to neglect the best of all remedies for those powerful medicines that seriously injure the system.

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

Is a combination of valuable herbs, carefully compounded, and the formula of a regular physician, who used this prescription largely in his private practice with great success. It is a powerful, yet gentle, and safe remedy. It is a cure for neuralgia, and it is a cure for all the other ailments that it cures.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

GOVERNOR GRAY yesterday appointed Capt. George W. Koonz, of Richmond, Wayne county, adjutant general of Indiana. The appointment goes into effect to-day. Captain Koonz accepts. The salary of this office, according to a statutory regulation, is $1,200 per annum, but by appropriation by the legislature is usually made $1,400. There are no assistants or clerks provided for, but a clerk may be employed and paid out of the military contingent fund.

THE STRIKE.

It is a matter of great satisfaction to the people of Fort Wayne that the railroad strike has been so amicably settled. It cannot be doubted that for several days a bloody riot was imminent, the occurrence of which would have produced effects injurious to the city and demoralizing to the strikers. Nothing but bitter animosities could have resulted. This happy termination puts a different phase upon the affair. While the people did not commend the strike they sympathized with the strikers. The citizens felt that while the strikers were possibly wronged by the railroad company, they in turn were wrong in striking. Now if the public can do anything to secure the passage of a law similar to that drafted by Henry Colerick it will do it. And when such a law goes before the legislature, backed by Henry Colerick, R. C. Bell, C. M. Dawson and others as representatives of the citizens of Fort Wayne, it will demand consideration. The railroad men did a wise thing in submitting their wrongs to the people and the future will demonstrate it.

THE INDIANA LEGISLATURE.

At the opening of the senate yesterday only fifteen senators were present. Senator Fowler offered a petition signed by 272 citizens of Richmond for the passage of an act providing for instruction in public schools on the effects of alcohol on the human system; also, nine other petitions from towns or villages in Wayne county to the same effect.

Senator Bailey, of Marion, presented a bill providing that wills admitted to probate shall be received in duplicate as evidence in all courts as to transfer of real estate, and that such wills shall be recorded. This was referred to the committee on judiciary.

Senator Brown, of Allen and Whitely, introduced a bill for raising funds for the holding of county institutes by a tax of fifty cents on each applicant for a license to teach in public schools. Referred to committee on education.

Senator Duncan, of Brown, introduced a bill relative to purchase of school furniture, maps and apparatus by school boards and township trustees. Referred to committee on education.

Other bills were introduced in the senate as follows:

By Foulke, to remove the disabilities of married women, subjecting them to all the disabilities of unmarried women, and giving them all rights possessed by unmarried women. This removes the operation of the statute of limitations against married women, allows them to be surety for their husbands, and grants other powers.

By Macy, to regulate the payment of moneys by state and county officers to their successors, and providing a penalty, for neglect, referred to committee on county and township business.

By McKinstry, to regulate the practice of medicine, surgery, etc., in the state of Indiana. Referred to committee on public health.

By Overstreet, empowering gravel road and plank road companies to extend their charters for a period not exceeding twenty years. Referred to judiciary committee.

By Scholze, to amend the drainage act.

By Winston, to give widows a right of election, and accepting terms of a deceased husband's will or retaining statutory rights of inheritance. Referred to committee on judiciary.

By Willard, to provide a fund for the State university; this provides that Par-due university and the State Normal school shall be parties interested in such fund, and that heretofore the university fund shall include these three institutions.

By Foulke, for appointment of presidential electors, providing that all persons of twenty-one years of age, without distinction of sex, shall be voters for such electors.

By Fowler, an act regulating transportation of freight, and appointing a railroad commissioner, to be appointed by the governor; salary of commissioner $2,000, and of his clerk, $1,000.

Considerable time was occupied in the house in discussing the Brooks bill, No. 3, to increase the bond of the state treasurer from $150,000 to $1,000,000. An emergency clause was added to the bill in the shape of an amendment by Mr. Gordon, and the measure was increased from twelve to twenty, by an amendment offered by Mr. Butts. After some further discussion, during which Mr. Patton stated that Mr. Cooper had filed a new bond of $150,000, which had been approved by the governor, the bill was ordered to be engrossed.

The bill appropriating $40,000 to Purdue university was engrossed.

The Kinger bill to prevent the sale of lands for delinquent taxes before the same shall have been delinquent one year was engrossed, as was also the Elzy bill to prohibit Sunday base ball playing.

There was barely a quorum in the house yesterday. Once only sixty-five members voted, and it became necessary to call the roll again.

Representative Scholze voted against tabling the amendment to increase Treasurer Cooper's bond to $1,500,000. Nearly all the senators and representatives who spent Sunday with their families have interesting experiences to relate about belated trains and the present annoyances of railway travel.

Treasurer Cooper denies the statement of Mr. Patton that he has renewed his bond and that the same has been approved by the governor in anticipation of the passage of the bill increasing it to $1,000,000. He will not file a new bond until his present term expires.

Secretary McCulloch transmitted to the house of representatives the draft of a bill proposed by the commissioner of internal revenue to amend the law relating to the entry of distilled spirits in the distillery and special bonded warehouses and the withdrawal of the same therefrom. The bill provides the tax on all distilled spirits hereafter entered for deposit in distillery warehouses or in special bonded warehouses or remaining in such warehouses at the time of the passage of this act shall be payable before or at the time the same are withdrawn therefrom, except in cases of withdrawals therefrom without payment of tax as now or hereafter authorized by law.

In a letter asking the immediate passage of the bill the secretary of the treasury says the whisky trade is not only depressed by over-production but by excessive taxation. In other words, the present whisky tax is a tax of production and is in contravention of the general policy of our own government and the policy of other enlightened nations, which derive a large revenue from articles of a similar character.

Mr. McCulloch insists that whisky be taxed the same as tobacco and beer—upon the amount consumed instead of the amount produced.

Quack doctors, electric belt and other swindlers who live by frightening our young men and young women by nasty circulars, will find their occupations gone when it becomes generally known that Dr. Guyott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla is a certain cure for all weaknesses of the urinary organs, nervousness, etc. Obey the laws of health, take a few bottles of this simple remedy and you will soon be restored to perfect manhood and womanhood, free from all worry of mind and distress of body.

A betty is the husband of a boarding house landlady.

Every day adds to the great amount of evidence as to the curative powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Letters are continually being received from all sections of the country, telling of benefits derived from this great medicine. It is unequalled for general debility, and as a blood purifier, expelling every trace of scrofula or other impurity. Now is the time to take it. Made by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all druggists.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

The New York board of health estimates that 30,000 lives have been destroyed by the explosive quality of petroleum. If every barrel of oil would be burned in a safe, and not in a dangerous, manner, the loss of life would be reduced.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

has none of the defects usually found in common oil. It is not explosive, does not char the wick, and it is clean, and it is safe. It is a powerful, yet gentle, and safe remedy. It is a cure for neuralgia, and it is a cure for all the other ailments that it cures.

NOTICE

State of Indiana, City of Fort Wayne.

To the Treasurer of said City:

Whereas, the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, at a regular session, held on the 10th day of June, 1904, approved and confirmed a contract made by and between said city and William Horstman, contractor for paving and repaving with brick the sidewalks on both sides of Grand Avenue from Washington street to the New Haven and Fort Wayne turnpike;

And whereas, an estimate was duly made by the City Civil Engineer by the direction of said Common Council, on the 15th day of November, 1904, for the sum of sixteen thousand and four hundred cents as the amount due from said Horstman, the owner of lot numbered fifty-three and fifty-four in the first addition to the City of Fort Wayne;

And whereas, at a meeting of the Common Council of said City, held on the 23rd day of December, 1904, the Clerk of said City reported to the Common Council the said estimate of William Horstman, the said contractor, showing to the satisfaction of the Council that the said work had been done according to the contract, and that said estimate or amount had been properly made, and that the said estimate remained unpaid;

And whereas, said Council at said meeting last aforesaid, ordered and directed a precept to issue for the collection of said sidewalk assessment, which precept was duly issued and delivered to me;

And whereas, the said Chan, H. Shearer, cannot be found within the City of Fort Wayne, Ind.;

Notion is hereby given to the said Chan, H. Shearer, that unless said assessment, with interest thereon and all cost and charges, is paid within thirty days after the date of this publication, I will proceed to sell said lot in White's first addition, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said sidewalk assessment, with interest and cost.

Two More Important Cases.

Your agent being in Columbus, Ga., a few days ago, and meeting the venerable brother, J. H. Campbell, we asked him for the news. His reply was, "I have two more important cases effected by Swift's Specific." To report this venerable man is known far and wide for his unremitting labors of love in the behalf of the poor of Columbus. It will be remembered that the Swift Specific Co. has donated quite an amount of their famous medicine to be distributed by Mr. Campbell among the poor of the city. Hence his remarks. He said: "I have just seen a lady who has been greatly improved by a letter in one of her hands. It had given her much trouble and pain. She said she had been suffering from rheumatism during the past three or four years with the old remedies, but without giving any result. I suggested Swift's Specific, and she took four bottles and is now apparently perfectly well. Her hand is smooth and not a single sign of the disease left. It is marvelous how this medicine removes the system."

"What about the other case?"

"Well, that was a lady also. She had been afflicted with rheumatism for four years. Her face, hands and arms, as well as her body, were covered over with sores and scabs. It was one of the worst cases of this terrible disease that I have ever seen. The sufferings of the poor creature were beyond description. The triphle remedy at command, including mercury and blisters of potash, but she only grew worse. She was in the constant physical agony. I soon had her taking Swift's Specific, and she has now only taken two bottles, but every mark of the disease has almost entirely disappeared. Her strength and general health have greatly improved. It is one of the most remarkable cures that I have ever seen."

Mr. Campbell, you have had a long and varied experience in dealing with men, and observing their afflictions and the remedies used—that is your opinion as to the merits of Swift's Specific?

"In a ministry of sixty years I have mingled with every class of society, and have observed their ailments and the various remedies used. Rheumatism and the diseases which afflict humanity. Blood diseases are the most numerous and the most difficult to remove. It is my deliberate judgment that Swift's Specific is the greatest blood purifier ever discovered. There is nothing comparable to it. There is nothing so good to use as Swift's Specific."

These on Blood and Rheumatism are mailed free. This Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

THE MERRY CHASE.

The Sportsmen of Monroe Township Organize Another Fun Hunt for January 23.

J. B. Neizer, marshal of the Monroe township jockey hunting club sends Taz Skirtz horseman an invitation to the second grand hunt to occur January 23. The chase may last a week if the hounds and horses can stand the run; but at any rate it will be a grand sight. The plan of the chase is as follows:

The west line to commence at Jones' school house, Monroe township, and extend north to Girards' school house, on Paulding road in Jackson township.

The north line will form a junction with the west line and extending east along Paulding road to road running south by the farm of Isaac Snyder in Benton township, Paulding county, Ohio.

East line will join north line and extend south along road to south line of Rodney Graham's farm in Tully township, Van Wert county, Ohio.

South line will join the east line at Graham's farm, extend west to state line, thence north one-half mile, thence west to Jones' school house and join west line.

A center field will be lined on the Stephenson farm on Ridge road. Lines to be marked by straw or in some suitable manner.

Mr. Neizer has offered the divisions of the chase as follows:

James Kerns, marshal of north line; John Fry, marshal of west line; Perry Sims, marshal of east line.

Captains, west line, Benjamin Vandale; P. Zurbrieh, W. Shehan, J. Kline. Captains, north line, James Bolyard, J. W. Jones, Frank Sugars, Eli Wood. Captains, east line, H. Gideon, Thomas Finan, Ed. The Jeffersonians Meet.

At the circuit court room last night there was a large assemblage of Jeffersonians. Hon. Montgomery Hamilton was president of the meeting and W. W. Rockhill was at the secretary's desk. It was agreed not to go to Washington as a club to witness the inauguration of President Cleveland, and a motion to make permanent the organization of the Jeffersonian club was unanimously carried. The president then named the following gentlemen to report a plan or plans of organization: James M. Barrett, chairman; Charles A. Munson, Joseph Singmaster, Joseph J. Jenkinson, Henry Colerick, A. J. Moynihan, George Fickel, Paul McCarthy, F. C. Bolts, August Lankman, H. C. Berghoff and A. F. O. Wichman.

The next meeting of the club will be one week from to-morrow night at the circuit court room. The committee to devise a constitution and by-laws for the club meet at J. M. Barrett's office Friday night.

The Worker-Volz Wedding.

Speaking of the marriage of a young gentleman who resides here the Davenport Democrat says: "Miss Ida S. Woelber, daughter of the late G. Woelber, and Mr. Joseph E. Volz, were united in marriage in St. Anthony's church yesterday. The bride was attended at the altar by her life-long friend, Miss Minnie Lillis, and Mr. Jas. Halligan attended the groom. Rev. D. J. Flannery sang the mass and performed the marriage ceremony. St. Anthony's choir sang the responses. The church was well filled with the friends of the contracting parties. The intimate friends were loyally entertained at the home of the bride during the day. Mr. Volz is an old Davenport boy with many friends. He has lately resided in Fort Wayne, Ind., where he has a prosperous business. The bride, Miss Woelber, is one of Davenport's most worthy young ladies, and belongs to one of the oldest and most esteemed families of the city. They left on the 9 o'clock

p. m. train for Chicago, where they will spend a few days, after which they will go to Fort Wayne, Ind., their new home, carrying with them many costly and useful gifts of friends, and the unanimous good wishes of their entire acquaintance."

HOIST THE FLAG.

Mr. C. H. Newton will supply the City with Weather Reports, if Some one Displays the Signal Flag.

It is known that the Wabash railroad has a very efficient signal service bureau for the purpose of regulating traffic. Allen Buell, sergeant of the signal corps of the United States, writes C. H. Newton, the freight agent of the Wabash road at this point, that he will send here three telegraph reports daily, rendering it possible to announce the approach of sudden changes of temperature far enough in advance to be of great benefit to dealers in perishable goods, farmers—in fact, there is scarcely an industry which would not be greatly benefited by the warnings of the approach of cold waves. Toledo now has the system in use and Newton, who is as clever as he is courteous, will telephone the weather reports to any part of the city, where there is enterprise enough to raise a signal weather flag.

All Mr. Newton asks is that some person erect a pole in a conspicuous place for the display of a cold wave flag—a white flag, six or eight feet square with black centre about two feet square. The flag cost but a dollar, and it is presumed there are people here willing to spend that much for the public good. The flag is only to be displayed when notified by Mr. Newton of the approach of a cold wave, and it should be taken down at the expiration of twenty-four hours unless a second warning comes.

To cure an ordinary cough or cold take one dose of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry before going to bed at night. It will cause a suspension of nervous excitability, allow you sweet repose, and by morning the cough will be gone. It is the best and therefore the cheapest cure for coughs, colds and consumption; is sold by druggists generally, and ought to be found in every intelligent household.
